

The Topsfield Town Library reserves the right to select and post items submitted for display on the bulletin board located in the library foyer. Postings will be restricted to items submitted by nonprofit organizations and decisions are based on community interest. Information concerning the library, library related events, and town business have priority.

This policy was adopted by the Topsfield Town Library Board of Trustees on February 8, 2000.